GARDENING AUSTRALIA'S 30TH ANNIVERSARY SPECIAL

HERONSWOOD GARDENS

Located on the beautiful Mornington Peninsula, Heronswood Gardens showcase the best flowers and plants for Australian conditions.

HERONSWOOD GARDENS

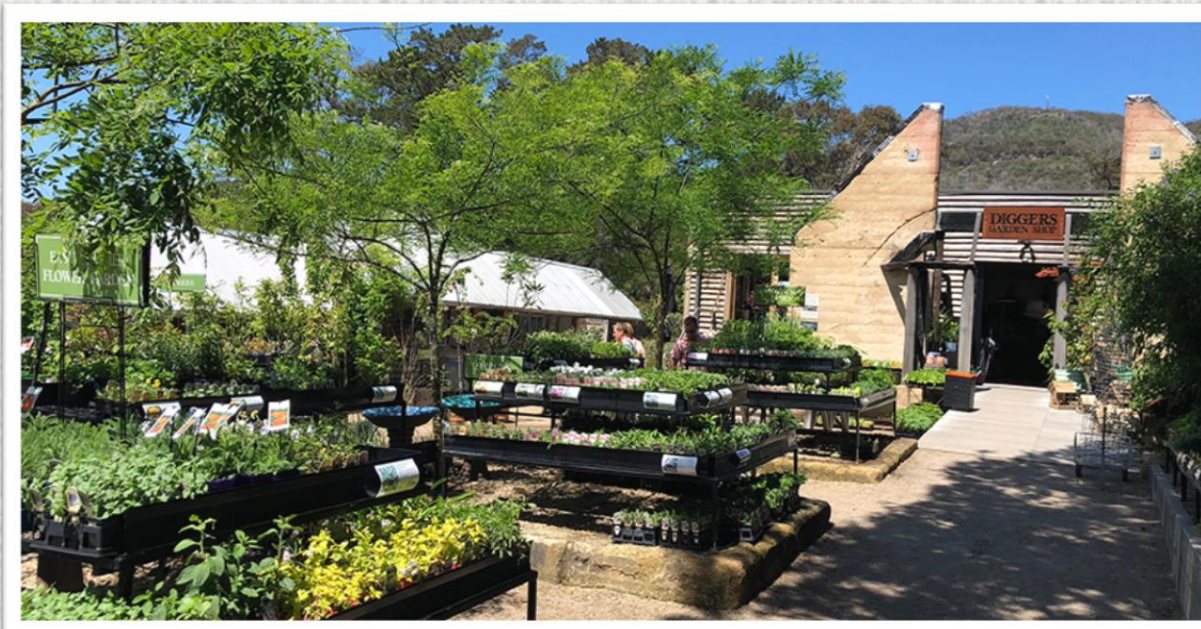

The Gardens have the largest collection of fruit and vegetables for gardeners and is the first in Australia to be certified organic. Heronswood has five vegetable gardens and it is within these gardens they have rescued the best heirloom vegetables. The garden has extensive plantings of flowers, including perennial borders, dry climate, cottage, annual gardens.

HERONSWOOD GARDENS

Héronswood is one of the four Victorian gardens listed in the Oxford Companion to Gardens alongside the Melbourne Botanical Gardens, Mawallock and Ripponlea which is testament to its standing in the horticultural community.

Also located at Heronswood is the Diggers Garden Shop, which has a wide range of plants on offer and specialises in Diggers signature heirloom seeds, cottage flowers and edible plants that are complemented by a range of flowering shrubs and cool climate trees.
